ON THE PACIFIC SLOPE.

ANTI-CHINESE AGITATION-HENRY IRVING-"BLIND BOSS" BUCKLEY-ORMONDE. [BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.]

San Francisco, Sept. 9 .- The trouble over Chinese laborers has broken out again in the southern The feeling throughout the San Joaquin Valley, where a large tramp element is gathered, is exceedingly ugly, and only a lealer of nerve is required to cause a repetition of the Rock Springs outrage, for which the Government paid so heavy an indemnity to China. The better element of Californians are against any persecution of the Chinese. Nine-tenths of the people of the whole coast regard the Asiatics as a curse the country, but even those who detest the Mongolian do not approve of any acts or any legislation imposing hardships on the Chinese. It is only the idle, improvident and vicious classes that have taken up the old Sand Lot ety. Denis Kearny has "The Chinese must go!" emerged from the obscurity in which he has remained for over a decade, to attempt to regain some of his old prominence by demanding the issue of warrants for unregistered Chinese. He is a fair type of the fellows who harangue the anti-Chinese meetings that have been held recently in many California towns.

Judge Ross's decision that there is money enough to enforce the Geary act may spar the Administration to some decisive step. But this is uncertain. President Cleveland himself has always shown a tender feeling for the Chinese, and his Cabinet have kindred sentiments. Then there are trade reasons for not antagonizing the Chinese, as the Standard Oil Company, the Oriental and Pacific Mail Steamship companies, and the overland railroad companies would all suffer badly were the Chinese Government to suspend trade and diplomatic relations with this country, as it assuredly would if wholesale deportation of the Mongolians were begun. Conservative men here who have made a study of the subject, believe Mr. Cleveland will grant an extension of time in which Chinese may register. This second epportunity will not be neglected by the Chinese.

The Irving season this week has been a great success from both an artistic and a financial point of view. Cassandras predicted that the tragedian could not fill the Grand Opera House in these hard times, but the audiences at every performance have been large and exceptionally Even Mr. Irving bimself admitted that San Franciscans were quick to respond to his best points. He opened with "The Bells," and the following night he played Shylock with such enormous energy that he came near suffering from nervous collapse. The reaction exposed him to a severe cold, and when he gave "Becket" the first night he was excessively hoarse; yet those who have studied him in London say that he never surpassed the rendering that he gave here of the great churchman. Miss Ellen Terry has shared equally in the honors of the week, her Portia and her Rosamond being given with wonderful freshness, spontaneity and grace. In fact, both these players appear to have gained new life and vigor by their long rest from active work.

To-morrow night the Bohemian Club of San Francisco will entertain Mr. Irving in unique fashion. He will be initiated as an honorary nember of this club, and then he will listen to "jinks" the like of which he certainly never heard before. His leading characters will appear before the veteran tragedian in appropriate dress and, after reproaching him for revealing their evil qualities, will all point to him, and chant "List, Oh, List." As the last words die out, the lights will flash up and the chorus of characters will break into the "Ta-ra-ra-boom-deay's song and dance. It was after one of these receptions by the ingenious Bohemian Club men that Sir Edwin Arnold asked quizzically whether Shakespeare was not correct in giving a seacoast

The report that "Blind Boss" Buckley is on his way back to San Francisco has aroused great interest among the Democratic ward strikers, who terest among the Democratic ward strikers, who have found scanty pickings since his flight. Buckley fled by night to avoid investigations by the Grand Jury, which would surely have resulted in the exposure of large frauds and perhaps in his conviction and sentence to San Quentin prison. Now that the reform crusade has fallen flat and good Democrats once more "rule the roost," the ex-boss seems to think it is safe to return. Whether or not Buckley will attempt to recover his old leadership is uncertain. What no one disputes is that he has had no successor in brains, though several would-be chieftains could easily equal him in yeality. equal him in venality.

The scaling steamer Alexander has returned from a prosaic cruise in Japanese and Russian waters. She was fitted out so regardless of expense that the remor became general that she intended to sail to raid the Pribylof Islands. She secured only 3,000 skins, which will not repay the owners for their lavish outlay. Scalaring men here are still convinced that she was sent out to engage in piratical descents on the scal islands or on other rookeries, either in the Behring Sea or on the Copper Islands, but that the vigilance of the American and Russian police parrol prevented her from carrying out her

The great stallion Ormonde received much attention this week when he arrived here from New-York. He made the overland trip in luxury, as betitting the highest-priced horse in the world, and he is now sampling California climate and cats at Mr. Macdonough's San Mateo ranci. Great things are expected by breeders from his get, and sanguine turfmen predict that California-bred youngsters will soon be capturing the Suburban, Futurity and other rich stakes.

Rain fell in several northern and central counties this week, but reports thus far received indicate that the loss was light to hay and fruit.

The greatest damag was done to the standpipe being erected in East Providence by the Cunningham Iron Works, of South Boston. The blow Thursday night crushed in the top for a distance of fortyfive feet, causing great loss to the contractor, and much delay for the East Providence fire district. POOTBALL MATTERS AT WESLEYAN.

Middletown, Conn., Sept. 9 (Special) .- The candi dates for the Wesleyan football team have been ordered to report here next Wednesday, ready to begin active training. The college will not open until September 28. In the mean time the football men will be doing some lively work.

greatest blunder in the work of the last two years has been the failure to provide a competent trainer for the men. As a consequence of this lack of attention, mistakes in diet have been the rule, and the players have been in poor physical condi-tion most of the time. Judd proposes to avoid such trouble this year, and has secured James Grant, of Cambridge, Mass., who is an experienced trainer, and also a weil-known middle and long-distance runner, to take charge of the men. He will be here next Thursday, and will give his entire attention to the learn until the close of the season. In the matter of coaching, too, there will be an important change. Instead of employing a coucher important change. Instead of employing a coacher from any other college, this work will be done entirely by Wesleyan men. It is expected that this will result in increased interest on the part of all the alumni, and a decided improvement in the work of the team. Seward V. Cofin, '89, who holds the relation to football at Wesleyan that Walter Camp holds at Yale, will probably have general supervision of the coaching during the season. Among those of the alumni who will be here to take part in this work for a week or mere at a time are Frank D. Beattys, '85: Harry B. Slay-back, '91: George H. Beattys, '82: George E. Manchester, '89: W. H. Hall, '92: J. S. Pullman, '92: J. H. McDonald, '91: Jordan Wells, '89: H. H. Beatty's, '88, and "Teddy" Smith, '93.

THE COLLECTOR AND THE LAWS DEFIED.

TWO CHINAMEN, TO WHOM ADMISSION HAD BEEN DENIED, LANDED BY A STEAMSHIP COM-PANY-ACTION OF MR. SCHARE.

The officials of the Ward Line Steamship Company yesterday defied the Collector of the Port and the United States laws, and landed two Chinamen to whom admission had been denied by Collector Kilbreth. The Chinamen are Ga Ah Tek and Young Ki. They reached here on the steamer Saratoga from Havana on Monday last, their cases were not taken up by the Custom House officials until the following Wednesday they went before the Collector, who had suspicions that they were not students, as they said they were, but laborers who were trying to get into the country as students. The hands of the two men were hard and rough. They had letters directing them to report to certain laundry owners in Jersey City and New-York. The Col lector had two hearings in these cases, refused to allow the men to land. The steam-ship officials decided yesterday that they would take the responsibility of landing the men, and just before the steamer sailed for Havana, at 1 o'clock in the afternoon, they put the men ashore

Inspector Meelig, of the Surveyor's staff, was on the pier at the time, and he made a vigorous protest against the landing of the men. ship officials declared that they would take the ensibility for so doing, and they threatened, so it was said by the inspector, to use force if he attempted to interfere. Immediately after the men had been landed the inspector made a report to his superior, who in turn informed the Collector. Mr. Kilbreth sent for J. Thomas Scharf, the Chinese inspector, who immediately worked himself up into a highly indignant pitch, and hurried off to the steamship pier to arrest the He found the two Chinamen on the pier and at once put them under arrest and carted them off to the Tombs Police Court to have them locked up. Scharf said that he proceeded under the law of 1884, which requires the deportation of all Chinamen who are found in this country without a proper certificate. This compels the au-thorities to take the men before a United States Judge or Commissioner. In this case the Inspector two covers for her daughters on Tuesday. Only did neither, and the attorney for the men will go writ.

The penalty for landing the men is a severe one. It provides for a fine of $500 and imprisonment for one year, or both, at the option of the judge before whom a case is tried. The steamship officials refuse to say anything in explanation of their course yesterday except that they wanted the room which the Chinamen occupied, and on that account put them ashore.

CLOSING DAYS AT SARATOGA.

THE RUSH OVER, BUT MANY GUESTS STILL RE MAIN-PLENTY OF ROOM FOR THE DEMOCRATS.

Saratoga Springs, N. Y., Sept. 9 (Special).-Saratogians and the large number of early autumn visitors were just congratulating themselves on the superb weather, when Thursday produced a duplex meteorological disturbance that for force and intensity has not been exceeded here this year. During August there were thirteen storms and the aggregate rainfall was 11.25 inches, which is unprecedented for this northern region.

The summer rush of visitors is over, but there are still several thousand here and the cottage colony will remain until October.

THE LICENSE CONTROVERSY IN NEW BEDFORD New-Bedford, Sept. 9 (Special).-Mayor Jethro Prohibition Committee, who was the subject of discussion by Messrs, Harrington and Snow, of Lynn, and Dr. Peabody, of Stoneham, because Mayor Brock signed liquor licenses, has replied by letter to the committee. The above three members of the committee thought Mr. Brock should have notified the people here before election that if the city voted to grant liquor licenses he should efuse to serve as Mayor. They also tendered their resignations as members if Mr. Brock was to to take a different view of the matter, but at last accounts had not done so. Mayor Brock refuses to resign from the committee, and says: "I have sometimes wondered at the slow growth of the Prohibition party, but when I see such evidence as this of the narrowness of some of its members I am not surprised." He also says the issue of the city election here was the enforcement of the law, composed all political parties. It rested with the granted, then for the Aldermen to grant them if to sign them, as the Supreme Court has decided he must do. "No man can be more opposed to li-

A LECTURE BY PROFESSOR POLITZER

Professor A. Politzer, of Vienna, delivered a lecture before the Otological Society, of New-York, yesterday afternoon at the home of Dr. Emil Eruening, No. 109 East Twenty-third-st. Pro-fessor Politzer is a specialist on diseases of the ear, and his lecture was on that organ, illustrated by drawings, instruments and representations. He arrived in this country August 2 as official delegate from the Austrian Government to the World's Columbian Exposition for the purpose of examining the medical and hygienic exhibits at the Fair.
Besides doing this, he has visited a number of the prominent cities of this country and has spoken before several medical societies on his specialty. He will sail for his home on Tuesday.

HARTFORD POLITICAL GOSSIP.

Administration, was in Washington last week, and the position was offered to him by Commissioner Miller. His many newspaper enterprises prevented his acceptance, and it was given out semi-officially that Clinton B. Davis, chairman of the Democratic State Committee, would have the place. The ap-pointment has not yet been made, and Mr. Davis's friends are no longer consident that it will come his way, Clarence Deming, formerly Editor of "The New-Haven News," and Connecticut correspondent of New-York Democratic papers, who was named for Insurance Commissioner by Governor Morris, is now spoken of as more likely to receive the ap-pointment than any other man in the State. He is a Mugwump, and decidedly unpopular with the Democratic rank and file, and the Legislature refused to confirm the appointment by Governor Mor ris. If the appointment comes to him it will no eave Congressman Pigott in any better shape with his party than would John C. Hixbee's appointment, which he has apparently defeated.

The Governorship and Congressional campaign of next year is already being discussed in the newspapers, and there are many candidates named. The Republican State Central Committee will be reor-ganized. Chairman Herbert E. PUBLIC SCHOOLS TO OPEN TO-MORROW

NOT SUFFICIENT ACCOMMODATION FOR THE THOUSANDS WHO WILL APPLY FOR ADMIS-

SION-A FEW NEW BUILDINGS BEADY. The public schools of this city will be reopened to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock, with ac-commodations for about 6,000 more pupils commodations for about the closed in July. The than when they closed in July. The new schools in Chrystle-st., Bayard-st. and Woodlawn will be ready for use. The Chrystle-st. school will accommodate about 2,400 pupils, the Bayard-st, school about 1,800 and the Woodlawn hool 500 pupils.

In spite of the increased school facilities, howthe school population is far from being well provided with accommodations. Many of the DINNERS, DANCES AND PICNICS OF THE WEEK last season. The district east of Fourth-ave., bests., is badly in need of more schools, and admission to many children will be refused for want of room. At least four more schools, it is esti-mated, are needed for this district.

Last year 4,014 children were unable to obtain places in the public schools, and it seems likely that the number will be even greater this year. The attendance on the opening day last year was 141,000. It increased to about 150,000 before the term wa well under way. This year, from all indications there will be at least 165,000 children applying for admission in the schools before the term is far ad-Besides the 165,000 children who will apply for adnission to the primary and grammar schools there will be about 22,000 pupils at the corporate schools 1,300 at the College of the City of New-York, 2,600 at the Normal College and several thousand in the schools of the Children's Aid Society, the Female Guardian Society, etc., making a total of about 200,000 pupils. The city college opens on September 21 and the Normal College to-morrow.

All the school buildings have been thoroughly cleaned in the course of the summer, and many sanitary improvements, which were sadly no have been made. A large annex has been made to Grammar School No. 43, Amsterdam-ave, and Onbundred-and-twenty-pinth-st. A large building also has been added to School No. 33, in East One-hundred-and-twenty-fifth-st, which will accommodate 200 additional pupils. In spite of this, probably 2,000 children in Harlem will be turned from the schools. Instead of keeping up with the school population in the uptown wards, the achool accommodations are steadily running behind.

TROUBLE OVER SEWER BONDS

Commissioners of New-Rochelle, says that unless Coffin & Stanton, brokers, of No. 72 Broadway. a law suit may result. Mr. Underhill declares that when bonds to the amount of $95,000 were sold the firm bid them in at 114. Payments were to be made as follows: June 1. $2,000; July 1, $2,000, and August 1, $5,000. The first payment was made, the president of the commission says, but when Stanton refused for some reason to carry out the alleged contract. Mr. Underhill says that unless the firm pays up the bonds will be sold at auction again and if there is any deficiency from the price at which they were bid in by the firm suit will probably be brought for the difference. Neither member of the firm was in town yes-

DINNER OF THE INDEPENDENCE CLUB-POLITICAL AND SOCIAL NOTES.

The annual dinner of the Independence Club, which was held Monday afternoon in the clubhouse, One-hundred-and-twenty-seventh-st. and Lenox-ave., in commemoration of the annivers of the movement which led to the founding of that club, was a decided success. A large number of well-known Republicans in the city had been invited to be present and were among the guests. Some of them were John Sabine Smith, of the Re-publican County Committee; Henry C. Robinson, of the Harlem Republican Club; Joseph Coulter, of the Hamilton Republican Club; Solomon Oppenheimer, of the Loyal Club; Dr. John Shrady, Collin H. Woodward, of the Bradhurst Republican Club; R. H. Neaman, E. Seymour and William H. Bellamy, of the Republican County Committee. Some of those who sent regrets were Chauncey M. Depew, General Michael Kerwin, Thomas C. Platt, Percy D. Adams, Frank Raymond, Lincoln Doty Brown, David Friedsam and Jacob M. Patterson. About one hundred men sat down to the dinner at 3 o'clock, and Julius M. Mayer, the president of the Independence Club, presided. A number of telegrams of regret and congrat-ulation were read by A. E. Block, the secretary of the club, and the opening address of the evening was made by John Sabine Smith. Mr. Smith spoke hopefully of the outlook for the present campaign, and in high praise of the work done by the Independence Club. An address was also made by William H. Beliamy, in which he pointed out the line of work that could be most profitably followed by the Republicans in the fall. Other addresses were made by Dr. John Shrady, R. H. Neaman, Henry C. Robinson, Collin H. Woodward and Joseph Coulter. Some of those present were George Naegle, Hubert Charles, Henry Jarvis, William Sanford Lawton, S. Van Tucker, Jacob Block, Heury Beekman, B. HE IS NOT BELIEVED TO BE A LEPER.

A report that there was a leprous Chinaman if A report that they will be a sent to the Health Board last Monday. B. A. McGrath, who lived in Spring-st., had taken some articles to the laundry, it was said, and had no-ticed that a Chinaman in the place had suspicious blotches on his face. An inspector was sent to the laundry, but he was not able to find any person suffering from leprosy or from any contagious disease. Dr. Doty, of the Bureau of Contagious Diseases, said yesterday that the man noticed by McGrath might be in hiding, but he probably iid not have leprosy. There is more reason to fear that a Chinaman sick with smallpox is being concealed from the inspectors.

HE FELL TO HIS DEATH IN THE AIR SHAFT. The dead body of William Accles was found at No. 229 East Forty-third-st, yesterday morning. Accles was twenty-five years old and lived at No. 225 East One-hundred-and-twenty-fifth-st. He was without employment. On Friday evening he had supper with the Connolly family, living on the top floor of the house in Forty-third-st. He had gone there to see Patrick McGin, a laborer from Pannaylyania and he left the house about from Pennsylvania, and he left the house about 9 p. m. The police thought that Accles returned to the house at a later hour and went to sleep on
